Miss Eula Fleming, Miss Sierra Hedges and Miss Mary Weightman, three prospective summer brides were honor guests at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Ruth Foster and Miss Helen Neese at the home of Miss Neese in Buchanan street this afternoon. One feature of the affair was the search for the gifts, by the honor guests. Each guest brought gifts for all three, nicely wrapped and labeled, and the gifts were then hidden all over the Neese house, which is a very large one. The brides-to-be were obliged to find them after which they were placed upon a table and opened by the recipients.

The guests were: Miss Fleming, Miss Hedges, Miss Weightman, Mrs. Jack Lovelass, Miss Esther Lauterbach, of Colby, Miss Dorothy Harrington, of Beaver, Pa., Miss Helen Reinbach, Miss Esther Thomas, Miss Marjorie Blank, Miss Kathryn Albaugh, Miss Edna Anton, Mrs. O. Mrs. S. S. Beggs will be at home Friday afternoon from 3 until 5 at her home, 1434 Topeka avenue, in honor of her daughter, Miss Sierra Hedges, whose marriage to Mr. Howard Tyson Cox will be an early event. The assisting friends will be chosen from the Alpha Phi sorority of Washburn, of which Miss Beggs is a member. No invitations have been issued, and Mrs. Beggs and her daughter will be pleased to receive all of their friends.

The marriage of Miss Gretchen N. McCall of Leocompton and Mr. Jesse M. Hunley of Cheyenne, Wyo., occurred last evening at the home of the Rev. J. B. Gibson, 1513 Lane street, the service being read by the Reverend Mr. Gibson.

Mrs. Hunley is a young woman of fine intellectual attainments, having been the highest rated teacher in Douglas county for a number of years. Mr. Hunley is a young business man of Cheyenne, where they will make their home.

The ice cream social to have been given last week by the young people of the First Presbyterian church, which was postponed on account of the weather, will be held on the church lawn Friday evening.

THERE'S A WOMAN IN OUR TOWN

Who cast her bread on the water, but it did not return to her. When she returned home from her work a few days ago she found that a young woman had taken shelter on her front porch from the rain. She invited her in but the invitation was declined. She then offered the use of her umbrella, which offer was accepted. The next morning she started to her work, the young woman drove up in a large car with a man, the back seat being empty, and she invited her to get in. She and the man drove off, leaving the good Samaritan to her work, on the theory, possibly, that if she didn't own a car of her own, she ought to walk.

Miss Josephine Weaver entertained a few friends Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Florence Fritton, whose marriage to Mr. Frank Durein will occur June 17. The guests were: Miss Fritton, Mrs. Brunk, Mrs. Hallcock, Miss Margaret Rust, Miss Ruth Tandy, Miss Esther Wendell, Miss Ethel Grandon, Miss Helen Rutledge, Miss Helen Bennett, and Miss Charlotte Welch of Little Rock, Ark.

Virginia Goodrich, Margaret Wehe and Virginia Crosby. Miss Laura Wood will assist with a number of readings.

The girls of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of Washburn will have an informal dancing party tonight at the Elks club at nine o'clock. Among the out-of-town girls who will attend are: Miss Geraldine Riley, of Holton; Miss Adelaide Johnson, of Leavenworth; Mrs. Harry Speck, of Lyons; Miss Fee Knowles, of Wellington; Miss Ruth Louy, of Holton; Miss Marjorie Vellea, of Leavenworth, and Miss Doris Garber, of Holton.

Perhaps never in the history of Washburn college has there been so much excitement and enthusiasm as was displayed last night in the all-night affairs. Perhaps it was due to the fact that the students realize that Washburn is coming into her own; is being recognized as a strong college; is a potent factor in the life of Topeka, and is making forward strides all the time.

However that may be, the high tide of enthusiasm was reached last night when all of the different societies and fraternities held reunions, and the male students staged their annual

Hair On Face
DeMiracle

Ordinary hair grows on face, neck and arms soon become coarse and brittle when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove objectionable hair is to apply DeMiracle under the skin. DeMiracle, the original sanitary liquid, does this by absorption.

Only genuine DeMiracle has a money-back guarantee. At toilet counters in 25¢, 50¢ and $1.00 sizes or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.

FREE with testimonials, explains what causes hair, why it increases and how DeMiracle destroys it. Mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. DeMiracle, Park Ave. and 129th St., New York.
